2026 WORLD TOILET DAY CELEBRATION

To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
Chiefs, Functional Divisions
Public Schools District Supervisors/Principals In-charge
Public Elementary and Secondary School Administrators
School Health Section Personnel
School WInS Coordinators
All Others Concerned
This Division

1. In line with the celebration of the World Toilet Day which falls every 19th day of November, this Office, through the School Health Section, enjoins all schools to initiate and conduct activities highlighting this year's theme "Safe toilets. Equal futures." on November 19, 2026.

2. This annual activity aims to raise awareness about global sanitation crisis and focus on building support for Sustainable Development Goal 6 by 2030 which is to achieve universal access to safely-managed toilets and clean drinking water.

3. All schools shall organize activities, including but not limited to the following:
   3.1. Conducting advocacy program for learners and personnel during flag ceremony;
   3.2. Organizing programs/activities to maintain and sustain cleanliness and functionality of toilets in schools; and
   3.3. Posting of Information, Education, and Communication (IEC) materials in the toilets.

4. Public Schools District Supervisors, Principals In-charge, and Elementary and Secondary School Heads shall monitor the activities.
